

EE-563 Fall 2003, Anand Joshi

What were this instructor's main strengths?

- Knowledgeable, patient.
- He is very helpful.
- Clear and concise teaching.
- Knew the material very well.
- Well organized.
- Discussion is well organized. TA is punctual. Notes are clear.
- Patient.
- Experience of research on the class material.
- He has a very clear view of the status of the research in this field.
- Excellent availability outside class.
- Encouraged thinking outside the box.
- Explained materials really well. Good at course. Held extra office hours to help students with project.

How might this instructor improve his or her teaching effectiveness?

- Speak clearly and slowly.
- Be more prepared.
- Intuitive explanation.
- Perhaps a little more enthusiasm.

Additional comments?

- He was one of my best TAs.
- Really useful and effective during office hours. Can do to improve communication skills in televised discussion.